

Beverly Hills

Proclamation

Whereas, one in three young people have been victims of physical, sexual, verbal or emotional abuse in a dating relationship; and

Whereas, nearly 80% of girls who have been physically abused in their romantic relationships continue to date their abuser; and

Whereas, education is the key to preventing dating violence by teaching young people the warning signs of violent or abusive behavior and that healthy relationships are based on respect.

Now, Therefore, we, the City Council of the City of Beverly Hills, do hereby urge all citizens to educate themselves and their children about the problem of dating violence.
