WORLD SPIRITUALITY DAY - DEC 31

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

"Spirituality, the sacred, does not require belief. Belief is an essential member of the heart, acting out of love to give whatever the beloved asks. Surrender is being able to reach out to people of other religions, people who have been raised to believe that their own religion is the only one that can bring the salvation of a sinner."

— Douglas Cooper

"There is one standard by which we should judge people: how much love they put into their work. The more love they put into their work, the more they will be able to do. "Seek peace.
When you have peace within,
real peace with others will be possible."
-- Thich Nhat Hanh

Some of the wars and conflicts of the past and present were fought over land and resources, but many have been over religious differences.

In this past century, a global interfaith movement has been growing, helping to raise consciousness about the need for tolerance and understanding between different cultures and religions. This movement has helped highlight the common goals that most religions share, such as the Golden Rule, which is at the heart of nearly all religious traditions.

At the same time, many throughout the world are discovering that 'spirituality' -- a deep connection to a greater purpose for humanity -- is an important driving force in their lives, even if they aren't religious.

UNESCO (the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) is currently developing a strategy for Interfaith Cooperation for Peace, working with governments and religious and spiritual NGOs affiliated with the United Nations.

World Spirituality Day is an opportunity for all who value spirituality in their lives to connect and unite in our wish for a more peaceful, just and sustainable world based on values grounded in our deeper spiritual connection to each other and the world around us.

*"We are not human beings having a spiritual experience; we are spiritual beings having a human experience."

"In his scientific genius, man has wrought material miracles and has transformed his world. He has harnessed nature and has developed great civilizations. But he has never learned very well how to live with himself. The values he has created have been predominantly materialistic; his spiritual values have lagged far behind. He has demonstrated little spiritual genius and has made little progress toward the realization of human brotherhood. In the contemporary atomic age, this could prove man's fatal weakness." -- Ralph Bunche

"The true spiritual life begins within the individual when he perceives the importance of it, and begins to realize what spiritual values are. Therefore, in order for man to emerge from his present state of chaos, he must experience a revolution of a new type, one that will have neither a political nor an economic character. We may call it the individual self-revolution. There is nothing that can better transform man from his materialistic conception of existence to a spiritual awareness of life than such individual revolution from within..." -- Frederick Kettner
