"The great responsibility of a nation of freedom lies not in its outward actions against the nations of the world, but in the culture of liberty and education it provides to its own people. Freedom is not a mere slogan, dependent on national policy, but a way of life that is the only way to achieve the highest and best of our human nature. It is a way of life that is the only way to achieve the highest and best of our human nature. It is a way of life that is the only way to achieve the highest and best of our human nature."
—Franklin D. Roosevelt
