"The young women of today, free to study, to speak, to write, to choose their occupation, should remember that every inch of this freedom was bought for them at a great price. It is for them to show their gratitude by helping onward the reforms of their own times, by spreading the light of freedom and of truth still wider." – Abigail Dunway

"This is no simple reform. It really is a revolution. Sex and race because they are easy and visible differences have been the primary ways of organizing power. Power is about who gets what, when and how. It is about the ease with which this system still depends. We are talking about a society in which there will be no roles other than those chosen or those earned." – Gloria Steinem

"I am also very proud to be a liberal. Why is that so terrible these days? The liberals were liberators—they fought slavery, fought for women to have the right to vote, fought against Hitler, Stalin, fought to end segregation, fought to end apartheid. Liberals put an end to child labor and they gave us the five day work week! What's to be ashamed of?" —Barbra Streisand
