"There is truth in the story. There is a world that can be free - and a person of integrity can make a difference. It is not a matter of if, but of when. It is a matter of when we are not so frightened that we let others take away our freedom. That other human beings are willing and able to do this for us, and we are not. It is a matter of when we are not so frightened that we let others take away our freedom. That other human beings are willing and able to do this for us, and we are not. # WHAT'S YOUR BETTERWORLD ISSUE? FREEDOM

"Freedom means the supremacy of human rights everywhere. Our support goes to those who struggle to gain those rights or keep them."
-- Franklin Delano Roosevelt

Freedom is the most basic of all human rights, but throughout history many individuals and nations have had to struggle to be free. For this reason, the first ten Amendments, known as the Bill of Rights, were added to the American Constitution to guarantee basic freedoms for our new nation's citizens.

The Bill of Rights was a tremendous milestone in the pursuit of freedom for all, and yet when our nation was founded, not all Americans were allowed to be free. Slavery is the ultimate loss of freedom, and it was nearly another 100 years before Abraham Lincoln signed the 13th Amendment abolishing slavery. National Freedom Day commemorates this momentous occasion on February 1, 1865.

The first article of the United Nations' Universal Declaration of Human Rights states the most important starting point for all human rights - "All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights." Much progress has been made in helping to win freedom for all. But even though international law forbids slavery, it still exists in many parts of the world. In fact, there are more slaves today than ever before -- more than 27 million men, women and children are forced against their will to work as prostitutes or in sweat shops or agricultural fields. And even though all nations agreed to uphold basic human rights for their citizens, many people are not allowed these basic liberties.

Freedom Day, on February 1, is an opportunity to celebrate the victories for freedom that have been won and to re-dedicate our commitment to work for freedom for all.

"When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, 'Free at last! free at last! Thank God Almighty, we are free at last!'"

"We must not allow ourselves to become like the system we oppose. We cannot afford to use methods of which we will be ashamed when we look back, when we say, '...we shouldn't have done that.' We must remember, my friends, that we have been given a wonderful cause. The cause of freedom! And you and I must be those who will walk with heads held high.
